

Story Taken from Des Moines Register:

Top 100 Iowa Sports Stories

17. 1998 Indian Hills Basketball

July 27, 2007

Coach Terry Carroll's team repeated as national champion, capped a 38-0 season and set an NJCAA record with 72 consecutive wins. And it all started after Carroll received a lucky buckeye from the dean of students in 1996.

"A lot of luck was involved in it, no question about it," said Carroll, now the coach at Southeastern Community College in Burlington. "During that stretch we won two or three games on last-second shots."

Did you know? Carroll played basketball for Northern Iowa before graduating in 1978. He was an assistant at Drake and Iowa State.