

Media reps,

NIACC head men's basketball coach Bryan Martin announced that former Osage High School boys basketball coach Mark Mohl will be an assistant with the Trojans for the 2007-08 season.

Mohl had been head coach at Osage High for nearly a decade in basketball and was an assistant coach for Osage's state title team a dozen years ago. A current player for NIACC, Nate Haaland, was an All-State player under Mohl's tutelage last winter. An elementary school teacher, Mohl will continue to coach varsity baseball at Osage High.

"We are very excited about adding Coach Mohl to our coaching staff," said Martin. "He brings a wealth of experience and will be an asset to our recruiting because of his contacts throughout the state of Iowa."

NIACC finished 21-11 last season and the team's 20 regular season wins were the most a NIACC men's basketball team had produced in two decades. More about NIACC men's basketball can be found at www.niacc.edu/athletics.